ORDER:

In the reference cited above, the Secretary, WCD has stated that, the Government of India adopted Gender Budgeting in 2005-06 with the introduction of the Gender Budget Statement (GBS), which outlines budgetary allocations and public expenditures aimed at promoting gender equality and women's empowerment. In alignment with the Government's vision of Viksit Bharat @2047, which identifies women-led development as a key pillar, it is imperative to ensure that budgetary allocations and initiatives for women are effectively designed and assessed for their potential impact on gender equality and empowerment.

2. Further stated that a 1-day National Consultation on Gender Budgeting with Central Ministries/Departments and State/UT Governments, has been scheduled on 19th June, 2025 at Hall Nos. 2 & 3, Vigyan Bhawan, New Delhi and requested to nominate two Officers from A.P to attend 1-day National Consultation on Gender Budgeting.

3. Government after careful examination of the matter, hereby nominate the following officials from Finance Department for participation in 1-day National Consultation on Gender Budgeting with Central Ministries/Departments and State/UT Governments, which is scheduled on 19th June, 2025 at Hall Nos. 2 & 3, Vigyan Bhawan, New Delhi. on behalf of Govt. of Andhra Pradesh.
